

Migrants Contribution to Development in the Global North

19 June (10 :45-12 :00)
Tour & Taxis, 1000 Brussels

Opening Remarks and Framing of Session

Ms. Shannon Pfohman, Advocacy Director at Caritas Europa

Discussion on Migrants' Contribution to Development in the Global North

Speakers:

- Prof. Jean-Michel Lafleur, University of Liege, will present the findings of the Belgian Common Home publication.
- Ms. Marie-Chantal Uwitonze, President of ADNE, will share her experiences on migrants and diaspora organisations' contributions to sustainable development in Europe.
- Mr Sohaib Alaaraj, Intercultural Mediator at Caritas International Belgium, will present the conditions under which migrants can contribute to the development of their receiving country
- Ms Agata Sobiech, DG DEVCO, Unit B3: Migration and Employment, will present the pilot projects, which aim to promote circular labour migration.

Moderated by Ms Karen Mets, Senior Advocacy Adviser at Children on the Move/Asylum and Migration

Closing the Discussion and Opening Floor to Q&A

Moderator

Q&A

Audience

This panel discussion is produced in the framework of the MIND project, which has received financial support from the DEAR Programme of the European Union.