

Economy of Francesco Caritas Europa debriefing meeting

27th of November 2020
9:30 – 13:00

The aim of the workshop is to:

- a) Facilitate experience-sharing among participants on how the EoF event inspired participants at personal and professional levels.
- b) Support participants in bringing what they have learned during the EoF event to their Caritas organisations, so that their learning/experience can impact the work of their Caritas, their local communities and the people they serve.
- c) Reflect on how the Caritas Europa network can play a role in bringing about Pope Francis' vision of a human-centred economy and the new SF outcome on revamping our society.
- d) Formulate a message to the Caritas Europa network on how Caritas can work towards a human-centred economy.

Agenda
9:30 – 9:50	Introduction (presenting the agenda and meeting each other)
9:50 – 10:30	Sharing the experiences from the EoF This session will present the Economy of Francesco event and an initial exchange of experiences, thoughts and inspirations from the event. Presentation & Exchange on the EoF Event? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentation on the EoF event Exchange: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What did you learn from the sessions you attended/the event itself? • How did the sessions/the event challenge your thinking regarding the need for a more human-centred economy? • What will you take back with you to your Caritas organisations? Q&A Moderator: Agnieszka

This event has received financial support from the European Union Programme for Employment and Social Innovation "EaSI" (2014-2020). For further information, please consult: <http://ec.europa.eu/social/easi>

10:30-11:40	Reflection on human-centred economy This session will enable a reflection on what a human-centred economy should look like and how the Caritas Europa network can play a role in bringing about Pope Francis' vision of a human-centred economy. Guiding Questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does a human-centred economy mean for you?/ What would you like to add or change in our concept note on human-centred economy? /How can we build upon our concept and definition of human-centred economy? • What are the injustices we see in the current economic system?/Which areas of our current economic system do you think are most in need of change and how can we categorise these areas (i.e welfare system, taxation system, education system, labour markets)? • How can we, as European Caritas organisations, play a role in bringing about Pope Francis' vision of a human-centred economy? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Which areas of the human-centred economy should we prioritise both in terms of advocacy and national/local projects? • Can we involve people experiencing poverty/social exclusion in the promotion of the human-centred economy and by which means? • What role should the Caritas Europa secretariat take in providing guidance & in supporting member organisation's efforts toward achieving a human-centred economy? Moderator: TBC
11:40-12:00	Break
12:00-12:45	Next Steps During this session we will summarise our reflection and respond concretely to the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What steps/actions will we need to take towards achieving these priorities over the next seven years? • What concrete strategies will we need to put in place in order to seek structural change? • We already have objectives/outcomes on achieving a more human-centred economy in our new strategic framework. What activities could we carry out under these objectives? Moderator: Lucy
12:45-13:00	Conclusions and evaluation

